

I have an eReader...Now what?

January 10, 2011
Skokie Public Library

Websites that offer free eBooks

North Suburban Digital Consortium <http://nsdc.lib.overdrive.com>

Browse, checkout and download over 2000 eBooks with your Skokie Library Card.

Project Gutenberg www.gutenberg.org

33,000 eBooks in the public domain whose copyright has expired are available for downloading here. This website is a great source for all those classic you meant to read and never got around to reading.

Open Library <http://openlibrary.org>

From the Internet archive, Open Library's motto is "One web page for every book ever published" and they encourage users to add works in the public domain to the site. Great for finding different editions of classic texts.

Feedbooks www.feedbooks.com

Like Project Gutenberg and Open Library, Feedbooks offers free public domain books; plus, they offer free books by up and coming authors.

Google <http://books.google.com/ebooks>

In addition to offering books for sale, Google has almost 3 million free ebooks from the public domain available to download.

Cory Doctorow: <http://craphound.com>

Cory Doctorow is a best selling SF author and a passionate advocate for readers' and authors' rights in regards to copyright. He makes all his books free to download on his website.

Baen Free Library <http://www.baen.com/library>

Best selling SF authors such as Larry Niven, Eric Flint, Lois McMaster Bujold, and Mercedes Lackey offer some of their books for free download on this site.

Smashwords <http://www.smashwords.com>

A great source for indie authors and publishers. Some you do have to pay for, but many beginning authors offer their books for free. You can also download a free sample of a chapter or two of many of the books on the site.

Harlequin <http://tryharlequin.com>

For the romance novel enthusiast, the publisher Harlequin offers 18 free eBooks for fans to download.

Author/Publisher websites:

Many author also offer limited time free downloads of their books, free samples of forthcoming books or short stories. Increasingly, authors and publishers are using Facebook and other social media sites to advertise these offers.

To download a library eBook to your eReader:

1. Visit our digital consortium page at <http://nsdc.lib.overdrive.com>
2. Search for your favorite author or browse through a subject to find a book that interests you.
3. Once you choose your eBook, click on 'Add Item to BookBag.'
4. When you are done filling your BookBag, click on 'Proceed to Checkout.'
5. Sign in with your library card number.
6. Confirm your checkout.
7. Click 'Download' and the eBook will download to Adobe Digital Editions.
8. Adobe Digital Editions will now open with the book in your library. You can read the book on your computer or you can transfer it to your eReader.
9. Plug in your eReader and drag and drop the eBook from Adobe Digital Editions to your eReader. For the Nook, these books will show up in 'My Documents' in the 'My Library.'

To add a free eBook to your eReader:

1. Right-click on the 'Download' link.
2. Select 'Save Link As...'. Choose where on your computer you want to save the file.
3. Click 'Save'. The eBook is saved to your computer.
4. Now, open Adobe Digital Editions and click the Library icon in the upper left corner.
5. Click on the word 'Library' and, in the drop down menu, choose 'Add Item to Library'.
6. Find where you saved the eBook and select it.
7. The eBook should now appear in your Adobe Digital Editions Library.
8. Plug in your eReader and drag and drop the eBook from Adobe Digital Editions to your eReader. For the Nook, these books will show up in 'My Documents' in the 'My Library.'

Skokie Public Library
5215 Oakton Street
Skokie, Illinois 60077
847.673.7774 / 847.673.7797 fax
www.skokieline.org

Skokie Public Library Trustees: Diana Hunter, President/ President Emerita;
John Graham, Vice President; Zelda Rich, Secretary; Richard Basofin; Susan
Greer; Karen Parrilli; John M. Wozniak
Director: Carolyn A. Anthony